Set within the highly sought-after area of Linslade, this immaculately presented four-bedroom semi-detached period property perfectly balances timeless charm with modern convenience. Just a short walk from Leighton Buzzard mainline station, with direct services into London Euston in around 30 minutes, it offers the ideal blend of a tranquil family setting and superb commuter links.

From the moment you step inside, the sense of space and character is clear. The entrance hall leads to a choice of reception rooms, each with its own appeal. The extended family room, with feature fireplace, Velux windows, and French doors opening onto the garden, is the true heart of the home — a bright, versatile living space designed for both relaxed gatherings and entertaining on a larger scale. A separate lounge offers a cosy retreat with its own fireplace and bay window, while the dining room seamlessly connects to a thoughtfully designed kitchen. Fully equipped with integrated appliances, stylish cabinetry, generous work surfaces, and underfloor heating. A useful cloakroom and ample storage complete the ground floor.

Upstairs, the landing provides access to four well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering comfort and flexibility. The main bedroom features a charming bay window and air conditioning, while the remaining rooms are ideal for children, guests, or a home office. The family bathroom is finished to a high standard, with a bath, separate corner shower, modern fittings, and a heated towel rail.

The outside space is equally impressive. A mature rear garden offers a generous lawn, a patio area for alfresco dining, and two sheds with power and lighting. Side access adds convenience, while the front of the property benefits from a driveway with parking for two vehicles.

With its period character, modern enhancements, and enviable location, this home is an exceptional opportunity for families seeking both space and style in one of the area's most desirable settings.

Location

Leighton Buzzard is a market town in Bedfordshire, England. It's located about 30 miles (48 km) north of London and is known for its rich history and charming mix of old and new. Historically, it was important for its gravel extraction, but nowadays it has a more residential and commercial character, with a number of parks, good schools, and an active community.

The High Street has a variety of shops and businesses, whilst the town is surrounded by picturesque countryside, offering plenty of opportunities for outdoor activities, and is also well-connected with public transport, making it a popular place to live for people who commute to London.
