For sale: this one-bedroom terraced cottage-style house in Sunderland offers a comfortable, practical layout and a convenient setting for everyday living. Presented in good condition, the property may appeal to first-time buyers, downsizers or investors seeking a manageable home in an established residential area.

Inside, the reception room provides a welcoming living space, featuring a fireplace as a focal point and French doors that open directly onto the rear yard. The kitchen benefits from a breakfast area and a Velux window, bringing additional natural light into the space. The bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and large windows, creating a bright and functional room. The bathroom is fitted with a bath, separate shower and heated towel rail, offering practicality for day-to-day living.

Situated in Sunderland's coastal north, the property is well placed for a range of local amenities including shops, cafés and everyday services, while nearby schools add further convenience. Roker and Seaburn seafronts are within easy reach, providing access to beaches, coastal walks and open green spaces.

Combining compact accommodation with a practical layout and a convenient location, this property offers an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for an easy-to-maintain home or a potential investment purchase.
