Offers In The Region Of £350,000

* 3 BEDROOM * FREEHOLD * LARGE DRIVEWAY * LARGE GARDEN * COASTAL LOCATION * HIGH SPEC *

New to the market – an stunning three-bedroom semi-detached house in a highly sought-after Sunderland coastal location, just a few minutes' walk from the seafront, cafés and restaurants.

The property is approached via a large gravel driveway providing parking for multiple vehicles. Inside, a stunning entrance hallway immediately sets the tone, featuring oak and glass-panelled balustrades, large porcelain tiled flooring and solid oak doors throughout.

There are two reception rooms, including a relaxing front lounge with a cosy exposed brick fireplace, while the generous living/dining room features engineered wood flooring, a slat-panelled feature wall, attractive fireplace, modern vertical radiators and a defined dining area overlooking the rear garden.

The modern, well-designed kitchen is complemented by a dedicated utility room with direct access to the garden. Original stained glass windows add further character and charm to the property.

Upstairs, the master bedroom features a wide bay window, while the second double bedroom enjoys sea views. The third bedroom is a well-planned single with a wood-panelled feature wall. The contemporary bathroom is a particular highlight, finished with full tiling, a walk-in shower, freestanding bath and heated towel rail.

Outside, the rear garden has been designed with low maintenance and entertaining in mind, incorporating an artificial lawn, paved seating areas, gravelled sections and a covered decked area, providing a number of spaces to sit and relax.

The property is ideally placed for highly regarded local schools and the amenities of Seaburn and Roker, including a variety of cafés, restaurants and the seafront. Seaburn and St Peter's Metro stations are also nearby, providing convenient links towards Sunderland city centre, Newcastle and the wider Tyne & Wear area.
