Brackendale, Thackley

DESCRIPTION

This exceptional, individually architect-designed four-bedroom detached residence offers approximately 1700 sq ft of beautifully planned living space, nestled in a tranquil woodland setting in the highly sought-after Brackendale area of Thackley. A true one-of-a-kind new build, the property combines thoughtful design with a high standard of finish throughout, presenting an outstanding opportunity for those seeking space, style, and serenity.

The ground floor features two generous reception rooms, ideal for both relaxed family living and formal entertaining. A large kitchen dining room provides the heart of the home, offering an impressive space for cooking, dining, and socialising. A utility room and a cloaks WC add practicality and convenience. Upstairs, the remarkably spacious master bedroom includes a private dressing room and a sleek en-suite bathroom, creating a luxurious retreat. Three further double bedrooms ensure ample accommodation for family or guests, served by a well-appointed family bathroom.

Externally, the home benefits from a double garage, a private driveway offering ample parking, and beautifully landscaped gardens that blend effortlessly into the surrounding woodland. This peaceful backwater location offers a rare sense of seclusion while still being within easy reach of local amenities and scenic canal-side walks.

Viewings are strictly by prior arrangement, and interested parties are encouraged to register their interest early to avoid disappointment. This is a truly distinctive property that must be seen to be fully appreciated.
