Vendor Comments

This flat was my first home and I've loved living here. There is a strong sense of community on the two adjoining streets, and neighbours are always lending each other a helping hand via a street Whatsapp group. Living right by the bike path has been a boon - it's easy to use for a walk or a run, and convenient for getting into town by bike. The location is excellent - quiet and residential but still extremely close to local amenities. I've made plenty of use of nearby bus stops, supermarkets, pubs, coffee shops and parks. The flat itself is well insulated and has a top of the range boiler, keeping fuel costs down. The morning and afternoon light gives it a very peaceful feeling, and the trees outside the window mean it doesn't feel overlooked. For ease of living, there's plenty of shelving for additional storage, and the part-boarded loft is easy to access via a pull-down ladder. **
