Here is what the owner said about the property and why she bought it:

The flat always felt wonderfully light, quiet and cosy, and was particularly bright on sunny days, creating a very comfortable and welcoming home. It was a perfect first home. One of the things I loved most about living here was the neighbourhood. The neighbours are lovely, and there is a genuine sense of community which makes the area feel especially welcoming. The flat is ideally positioned within easy walking distance of Forest Hill and Honor Oak Park, while Brockley is just a short trip away.
