LEASEHOLD

Guide Price £500,000 to £550,000

Now available is this well-proportioned 2-bedroom apartment within this Period Conversion on this quiet and tranquil road.

The property spans approximately 793 sqft of living space and offers two double bedrooms, a family bathroom, an open-plan living room and kitchen and also an additional utility room leading to its own private garden. Also there is a front garden and section of driveway which provides private parking.

In proximity of Hurstbourne Road are a plethora of shops, restaurants and amenities as well as plenty of open green spaces and parks.

Here is what the owner said:

We love the area, favourite spots are Marchetti cafe, the Perry Hill Pub, Blythe Hill Fields and the Horniman. We love how light the flat is, the daylight in the morning in the kitchen is lovely! The windows in the bedroom were new in December 2025. Having a front and back garden plus a driveway in London is a bit of a bargain also.

SCHOOLS

The property is in proximity of four schools which are rated in OFSTED's top 10%. In our experience, this is quite unusual and a very attractive feature of the location. Some of the highly acclaimed local schools include:

Rathfern - Early years provision – Outstanding, Leadership and management – Outstanding, Outcomes for pupils – Outstanding, Personal development, behaviour and welfare – Outstanding, Quality of teaching, learning and assessment - Outstanding

Bus routes running to many stations are available from the end of Hurstbourne Road (2 mins walk according to Google) on the South Circular, which also runs along Blythe Vale (opposite end to where the house is located). For late night travellers, Night Bus N171 runs from Tottenham Court Road through Waterloo, Elephant & Castle and stops at the end of Hurstbourne Road.

SHOPPING, SOCIAL LIFE AND CONVENIENCES

There are several award-winning local restaurants including Babur (Indian), Mama Dough (sourdough pizza), Le Querce (beautiful family-run traditional Sardinian dishes) and L'Oculito (Spanish wine bar and dining).

The award-winning traditional pub Blythe Hill Tavern (approx. 0.3 miles away) has been voted CAMRA South East London pub of the year, known for its real ales and friendly staff. Expect roaring fires in Autumn and Winter plus traditional Irish music every Thursday evening.

The Honor Oak pub (approximately 0.5 miles way) was refurbished and is a popular gastropub with a beer garden out the back.

Local high streets include Honor Oak, Forest Hill and Catford, where you will find Sainsbury's, Tesco your choice of boutique cafés, restaurants and trendy gastro pubs, as well as leisure centres, libraries and even the odd cocktail bar...

If you ever fancied a greater selection of shops, eateries and social activity there are travel connections to the adjoining towns of Dulwich, Brockley, Greenwich, Deptford, Lewisham and Bromley to name a few. Both the latter have shopping centres and high streets with many well-known brand names shops and restaurants.

Additional conveniences include the NHS doctors' surgery on the corner of St German's Road (located off the south circular), with a handy chemist located next door and a post office on the south circular.

LOCAL RECREATION

Off the high street in Forest Hill, you'll find the excellent Forest Hill pools and library both of which have undergone refurbishment.

There are numerous points of interest locally and some of the most popular include:

The local area benefits from the Ravensbourne Linear Park which leads through woodland and river walks to Sainsbury's Sava Centre.

The Horniman Museum and Gardens with regular events such as a farmer's market, live music and seasonal festivals to name a few.

Blythe Hill Fields is also close by and offers recreational facilities such as the "Trim trails" which is an exercise trail. It also hosts local events where the residents of SE23 and SE6 get to know each other better and enjoy the community spirit.
