Here is what the owner said:

We've absolutely loved living here, and it's with mixed feelings that we're putting our flat on the market, we're actually staying in the area because we love it so much.

The flat itself is bright, light and airy throughout, with the top floor offering genuinely amazing views.

Location-wise, it's hard to beat. You're within a 15-minute walk of three separate train lines, getting you into London Bridge in under 20 minutes. Two bus routes into Central London stop right outside too, so you've got options whichever way you're heading.

Forest Hill and Honor Oak are both close by, giving you the best of both neighbourhoods; great local pubs, a real community feel, and easy access to green space including Blythe Hill Fields. Local schools in the area are excellent too.

All in all, this has been a wonderful home for us.

SCHOOLS

The property is in proximity of four schools which are rated in OFSTED's top 10%. In our experience, this is quite unusual and a very attractive feature of the location. Some of the highly acclaimed local schools include:

SHOPPING, SOCIAL LIFE AND CONVENIENCES

There are several award-winning local restaurants including Babur (Indian), Mama Dough (sourdough pizza), Le Querce (beautiful family-run traditional Sardinian dishes) and L'Oculito (Spanish wine bar and dining).

The award-winning traditional pub Blythe Hill Tavern (approx. 0.3 miles away) has been voted CAMRA South East London pub of the year, known for its real ales and friendly staff. Expect roaring fires in Autumn and Winter plus traditional Irish music every Thursday evening.

The Honor Oak pub (approximately 0.5 miles way) was refurbished and is a popular gastropub with a beer garden out the back.

Local high streets include Honor Oak, Forest Hill and Catford, where you will find Sainsbury's, Tesco your choice of boutique cafés, restaurants and trendy gastro pubs, as well as leisure centres, libraries and even the odd cocktail bar...

If you ever fancied a greater selection of shops, eateries and social activity there are travel connections to the adjoining towns of Dulwich, Brockley, Greenwich, Deptford, Lewisham and Bromley to name a few. Both the latter have shopping centres and high streets with many well-known brand names shops and restaurants.
