Here is what the owner had to say about the property:

Location of the flat is perfect - regular buses from right outside get you to the high street, to the station and Crystal Palace in minutes, with easy links onwards. The choice of 2 different stations served by different lines within a 10-15 minute walk has been really helpful in cutting down journey times.

The flat is big for a one-bed, and having my own entry and outdoor space is great, I love the high ceilings and separate kitchen - despite being so close to everything it feels nice and quiet when you're in.

THE LOCATION AND LOCAL CONVENIENCES

The property is approximately a quarter of a mile to many facilities.

The conveniences of Bell Green retail park and the Sainsbury's Savacentre is also approximately 0.2 miles away.

The retail Park is a recent addition to the Bell Green area and features stores such as Next, B&Q, Costa, Aldi, Currys and PC World, Halfords, Pets at Home, Mercedes Benz, Sports Direct and a drive through McDonalds.

TRAVEL

Local bus routes stop near the property in both directions, including the 194, 202 and 450 which provide quick access to the station, and further to Crystal Palace, Croydon, Catford and Blackheath

The property is located between two stations, Lower Sydenham (0.4mi) and Sydenham (0.6mi) which provide easy access to the city via frequent Southern, Southeastern and London Overground services.

Charing Cross 26 mins
London Bridge 20 mins
Canary Wharf 36 mins

Penge East serving Victoria and Catford on the Thameslink line are both easily reached by direct bus services.

LOCAL RECREATION:

The flat is close to a number of green spaces - Home Park, home to Sydenham Library, is just across the road, and Mayow Park, with cafe, tennis courts and cricket pitch is a short walk away. Both also provide outdoor gym equipment.

Crystal Palace Park, Beckenham Place Park and Linear Pool Park, which leads from Beckenham to Greenwich, are both within comfortable distances by foot or bus.

Sydenham High Street is home to two gyms and a yoga studio, and nearby Forest Hill provides further options.
