Hunters are proud to present the five bedroom Period Property to the market on Santley Street in the heart of Brixton.

It is very important to note that this is one of the only five-bedroom houses with this unique floor-plan and square footage on the road. It is approximately 20% bigger than most of the houses situate on Santley Street.

The property benefits from many original period features including wooden flooring, high-ceilings, fireplaces and original windows.

Spanning approximately 1765 sqft this property has a lot to offer. As you enter via the front garden you have a hallway which to the immediate right provides two well-sized reception rooms. Further on you have an open-plan kitchen/dining room and also a family bathroom which lead out to the back garden.

On the First-floor there are two double bedrooms, the main one of which is situated at the front of the house looking onto Santley Street and offers approximately 176 sqft of living space, another kitchen and also a family bathroom.

The second floor offers another three double bedroom and again the main one at the front looking out offers similar living space to the one below. All things considered this is a wonderful opportunity for a family to acquire a new home in a very sought after area and on a very popular road.

Santley Street is very well located and residents are able to enjoy a plethora of bars, restaurants and coffee shops as well as extensive parks and open green spaces.
