GUIDE PRICE £450,000 TO £500,000

The property is situated on the first floor and top floor of a period building, offering approximately 1000 sq ft of space.

With three double bedrooms, separate lounge and kitchen, this layout spread over two floors feels like a house inside.

The sellers have stated the following to us about what they have enjoyed during their time in the property.

The Property has 3 bedrooms all with south facing windows, although on the main road it is far back enough from the road that we never hear the road, master bedroom and living have a high ceiling height and get lots of natural light. The hallway offers good ceiling height and space, the bathroom and kitchen were refurbished a few years ago, built in wardrobes in 2/3 bedrooms, separate WC and bathroom, high end appliances and roper rhodes bathroom furniture, 10m from 3 stations going to London bridge, Waterloo and Overground line for trains to Elizabeth Line and underground.

LOCAL RECREATION

Off the high street in Forest Hill, you'll find the excellent Forest Hill pools and library both of which have undergone refurbishment.

There are numerous points of interest locally and some of the most popular include:

The Horniman Museum with regular events such as a farmer's market, live music and seasonal festivals to name a few.

You can read more about the Horniman museum here:
