THE LOCATION

Honor Oak Road offers something both rare and unique. The entrance to one of southeast London's popular family attractions, the Horniman Museum and Gardens, is located extremely close to the property. This is so convenient that the gardens of the Horniman's are a secondary outside space for the residents of in the immediate area.

For those buyers who aren't familiar with the Horniman museum and gardens we recommend you have a look online and visit when you are in the area.

To have something of this nature on your doorstep will appeal to many buyers. With regular events such as a farmer's market and gardens that children adore, (sound garden and animals in particular), this will be of paramount interest to families.

You can read more about the Horniman museum and gardens via the below link:

<http://www.horniman.ac.uk/>

If the above isn't enough to tempt you, a more general view of the area will give insight into why Forest Hill has become increasingly popular in recent years and been featured on the popular TV programme "Location Location Location" several times.

Forest Hill has much to offer from boutique shops, thriving independent businesses on the high street, a great selection of green spaces and recreational facilities to great transport links and highly regarded schools.

SCHOOLS

Some of the best-known public schools include:

Ofsted rated "Good" Horniman (very popular with residents many of which move to this location to secure a place at this school)

Eliot Bank, Fairlawn, Stillness, Rathfern and Dalmain.

TRANSPORT

Forest Hill and Honor Oak Park train stations are served by the London Overground (Orange Line) and Southern Rail. Travel times to central London stations include:
