THE HOUSE and THE LOCATION:

Undoubtedly one of the greatest selling points of this house is the location.

Sitting on the sought-after Honor Oak / Forest Hill borders, the property offers over 1,025 sq ft of accommodation with three bedrooms and two bathrooms, plus two features buyers consistently ask for and rarely find together: OFF-STREET PARKING and a private, SOUTH-FACING rear garden.

The house sits on Brockley Park - a premier road in the area and is being offered CHAIN FREE.

Just moments away, Blythe Hill Fields is one of South East London's best-kept secrets: an open green space famous for its panoramic views across the City and Canary Wharf skyline. It's a favourite spot for sunsets, dog walking and weekend strolls, and its Trim trail and community events are exactly the kind of thing that turns a postcode into a neighbourhood. A WORD FROM THE OWNERS:

"What we've loved most is the private garden and the easy access to the green space right behind it - it became an extension of our own garden and is fabulous for families. The two upstairs bedrooms are a great size, and the downstairs bedroom and bathroom were perfect for guests. The open-plan kitchen, dining and living area with French doors onto the garden was a joy in summer. Add the off-street parking, brilliant bus and Overground links, great coffee shops, a green grocer, the best local pubs, and loads of nurseries and schools nearby - it's been a wonderful place to call home."

LOCAL SCHOOLS:

If schools and transport top your list, this location delivers - but it has far more to offer besides, in cafés, boutique shops and places to eat. We'd genuinely encourage buyers to come and spend an hour here: grab a coffee, wander the streets, and get a feel for the community when you view.

The property is in proximity to several of the area's most sought-after schools, a number of which have previously been rated "Outstanding" by Ofsted. According to locrating.com, it also falls within the catchment of both Harris Boys' and Harris Girls' Academy East Dulwich. (We'd always recommend confirming current catchments and admissions directly with the schools and the local authority.)

LOCAL TRANSPORT, DINING OUT, AND OTHER RECREATION IN PROXIMITY:

Honor Oak Park station - approximately 0.4 miles from the property - puts central London within reach, on both the London Overground (Windrush line) and Southern services, in Zone 3. Approximate journey times include:

- London Bridge in approximately 15 minutes
- London Victoria in approximately 35 minutes
- Canary Wharf in approximately 24 minutes

The Overground also links you directly to Canada Water, Shoreditch and Highbury & Islington, and Forest Hill station is a second option in proximity - so you're rarely more than a few minutes from a train.

When it comes to eating out, you are spoilt. Local favourites include Mama Dough (excellent sourdough pizza) and the award-winning Babur - a modern Indian restaurant that has drawn diners from across London for decades and recently took Fine Dining Restaurant of the Year at the Asian Curry Awards. There is the Honor Oak gastro pub, a growing crop of independent cafés and shops, and Le Querce, a much-loved, family-run Sardinian restaurant serving beautifully authentic traditional dishes.

For the outdoors, One Tree Hill - just at the top of Honor Oak Rise - rewards the short climb with some of the finest views across London and the city skyline. And the celebrated Horniman Museum and Gardens is close by, with its award-winning gardens, farmers' market and regular live music and events - a weekend fixture for many local families:
