Guide Price £500,000 to £525,000

Set on the fourth-floor of this Warehouse Conversion is this two-bedroom apartment in the heart of Brockley. Formerly known as the Tea Factory it was converted into a unique selection of apartments and houses an architectural practice within the commercial units at the bottom.

The property itself is a two-bedroom, two-bathroom (one en-suite) top-floor apartment spanning approximately 837sqft and offered in modern condition. The open-plan living room and kitchen benefits from an Island in the centre which makes it perfect for cooking but also hosting. One real benefit is that the property offers panoramic views from large windows situated in the living room and both bedrooms – this is something very rare to find.
