A two bedroom ground floor retirement apartment - The former show home, for the over 60s only, offered chain free, independent retirement living, 24hr careline service, laundry room, onsite manager, redecorated and recarpeted throughout, residents lounge & communal gardens, Town Centre location

The Development

Pinetree Court is a retirement development with a target audience aimed at the over 60's. There is security entry on the ground floor where there is also a member of concierge staff/house manager at most times during the day. There is a fully equipped and spacious laundry room (cost included in the maintenance charge) on the ground floor along with a Guest Suite (additional charge) for family members, should they choose to stay over. There are lifts and stairs to all floors and there is a super residents lounge with a kitchen where residents are able to socialise together and enjoy talks, activities and a friendly cup of tea. Pinetree Court is very well located close to the bus and railway stations, which provide excellent travel times (20mins approx.) into Kings Cross or St Pancras. Located just across from the Town Centre which has a variety of shops, cafes and banking facilities. Pinetree Court also provides a house manager on site.
