A lovely two bedroom period conversion, located in the heart of Newington Green.

This split level flat offers two double bedrooms, a bright reception with a recently installed separate kitchen and modern bathroom with shower over the bath.

Finished to a good standard, this charming property is within easy reach of the nearby Acoustic Cafe and other amenities.

Transport links are excellent: Canonbury and Essex Road Overground stations provide easy access to the City and East London, while Highbury & Islington (Victoria line) is the closest Underground station. Multiple bus routes serve the area, and King's Cross and St Pancras International stations are within easy reach for national and international travel.
