Set within a recently completed residential development, this beautifully finished first-floor apartment combines contemporary design with an excellent sense of space and natural light.

The heart of the home is the impressive dual-aspect reception room, where generous proportions and large windows create a bright, inviting living space. A sliding door opens directly onto a substantial private roof terrace, providing a superb extension of the living area and an ideal setting for outdoor dining, entertaining or simply relaxing.

The sleek open-plan kitchen has been thoughtfully designed with integrated appliances, ample storage and clean modern finishes, creating a stylish yet practical space for everyday living.
