Ground Floor

As you arrive at the property the first thing that you are greeted by are sensational views across East Hill from a variety of vantage points, there is ample parking for multiple cars and a full wraparound landscaped garden, after entering the house there is a study/office or even a fourth bedroom to the right, a WC to your left and stairs to both the first floor and lower ground floor, there is also access to the double garage, with remote up and over door.

Lower Ground Floor

when you leave the stairs you are instantly greeted by a dual aspect dining room with a large understairs cupboard and heated flooring, there are double doors to the sitting room which is a really good size, there are sliding doors which in turn lead to the conservatory with panoramic garden views, from the dining room there are further doors to the kitchen which lead to the utility and outside to one of the many entertaining areas, the kitchen is sleek, contemporary and modernised to an extremely high standard, it benefits from marble worktops a heated floor and navy cupboards, there is a built in fridge freeze, induction hob with twin eye level ovens and warming draw and a built in dishwasher.

First Floor

Once you reach the top of the stairs you are greeted by doors to all of the rooms, the third bedroom is the smallest but still very well appointed with built in wardrobes, the first and second bedrooms are both really good sized doubles, both of which benefit from being dual aspect windows and further built in wardrobes, the master bedroom also benefits from an Ensuite shower room, finally we come to the family bathroom which most definitely gives off "Spar vibes" with a beautiful roll top bath and matching vanity sink and WC the heated towel rails in both the family bathroom and ensuite are dual fuel both electric and gas, the ensuite has also been modernised.

Outside

The outside of the property is truly stunning and breathtaking, the garden has been designed to allow maximum enjoyment, there are several areas that benefit from resin/composite decking giving you an opportunity to take in the view, entertain or just while away those long summer days, you will never be short of sun as the main section of the garden is due south facing, whilst the current vendors have carried out work with decking and sleepers they also appreciate that there is nothing better than playing, resting and enjoying a beautifully grassed area, the property also benefits from off road parking for multiple cars along with a double garage with a remote up and over door.
