

68 Rural Lane, Wadsley, Sheffield, S6 4BJ Guide Price £250,000

Guide Price £250,000 - £260,000*

Hunters Hillsborough are delighted to present a truly unique three bedroom semi detached home in the popular district of Wadsley. Offering versatile family space along with a gated two car driveway and a supersized garage, viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the accommodation on offer. Entry via the front porch into a bay windowed lounge with oak wooden flooring running throughout the ground floor. This relaxing reception space leads off to a multi functional room, currently used as a games room and would be ideal as an office. The hub of the home is the dining kitchen leading out via French doors to a roof top garden with a superb elevated view. Focal point feature fire surround with wooden mantle and a log burner. The kitchen offers a range of modern wall and base units featuring an eye level electric oven and microwave, electric hob, fridge freezer, dishwasher and super sized pan drawers. Door into the inner hallway with stairs down to the cellar and garages, and stairs rising to the upper floors. Two good sized double bedrooms and one single along with a study and the family shower room with stunning floor to ceiling tiles, walk in shower, W/C and sink basin. Back to the inner hallway, down the stairs to two large basement spaces, one used as a music/arts room and the other a spacious utility with work surfaces and plumbing for a washing machine. Door through to a downstairs W/C and a side door leads into the covered car port. A fantastic feature that has been preserved over the years is an original street lamp protected by the car port, from the roof garden you can spy another down the valley. From this space you have access to the garage doors at the front of the property and a supersized garage at the back. Small area of garden at the side of the garage.
