Fixed Asking Price £180,000

Hunters Hillsborough present a delightful three bedroom terraced home in the popular residential district of Hillsborough with no onward chain. Likely to be popular with first time buyers and commuters, the property is tastefully decorated with accommodation over three floors and a delightful private garden. Entry to the property via back door into the off shot kitchen having a good range of wall and base units with accompanying breakfast bar and plinth heaters. Space for all the usual free standing appliances. To the dining room with high ceilings and picture rail, original floor to ceiling built in cupboard space and engineered Oak wood flooring throughout. Access to the cellar. Inner lobby with stairs rising to the first floor and a step down into a bright and spacious lounge with stripped back floor and a large bay window. Access to the front of the property via the front door. The first floor has the master bedroom to the front with a selection of fitted wardrobes. Single bedroom currently set up as office space overlooking the garden. Recently fitted shower room with corner shower cubicle having a Rainfall and handheld shower, sink basin and W/C. Stairs rise to the second floor attic bedroom three with a Velux window. Outside to the front are steps leading to the front door with a walled area having decorative pebbles. To the rear, entry to the garden via secure gate (no rights of access from the neighbours) into a private, fenced off low maintenance garden. There's a delightful patio area ideal for garden furniture with raised beds having a selection of mature shrubs. Steps lead up through a garden arch to a pebbled area with a garden shed included in the sale.
