Hunters Estate Agents are delighted to present this truly special home, nestled within the highly sought-after village of St Hilary. Just a short stroll from the well-regarded local school, this much-loved four-bedroom cottage has been thoughtfully extended and upgraded throughout. The result is an impressively spacious and versatile home, perfectly suited to modern family living or entertaining, whilst still retaining an abundance of character and charm throughout. The accommodation offers a wonderful balance of practicality and style, with well-proportioned rooms and a welcoming feel that flows seamlessly from one space to the next. Externally, the property continues to impress, with a delightful garden ideal for al fresco dining and outdoor enjoyment, along with off-road parking for multiple vehicles. A rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully enhanced character home in one of West Cornwall's most desirable villages.

The Property

Step into a practical entrance porch—an ideal space for boots and coats after exploring the surrounding countryside. Just off the porch is a well-appointed shower room, perfectly suited for freshening up after a muddy walk.

From here, you are welcomed into the heart of the home: a beautifully presented kitchen/dining room. Featuring a charming electric Rangemaster, elegant cream cabinetry, and generous worktop space, it offers both style and functionality. The dining area enjoys French doors opening onto the garden, creating a wonderful setting for everyday family life and entertaining alike.

Leading on, a separate utility room provides additional storage, further worktop space, and plumbing for white goods—an invaluable practical addition.

The ground floor also boasts two generously sized reception rooms. One overlooks the garden and features a cosy woodburning stove, perfect for unwinding with a good book, while the snug offers a charming dual-aspect space with exposed stonework, adding warmth and character.

Stairs then rise to the first floor, completing the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the property continues to impress with a particularly spacious principal bedroom, enjoying pleasant views over the front garden and neighbouring countryside. This inviting room also benefits from built-in wardrobes and a stylish en suite shower room—creating a comfortable and private retreat.

There are three further bedrooms, all well-proportioned, with one also benefiting from its own en suite WC—ideal for guests or growing families. A well-appointed family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation, offering both convenience and practicality.

Outside

To the front of the property, a neatly paved driveway provides off-road parking for multiple vehicles, or perhaps space for a boat or motorhome. Attractive planted areas complete the setting, while a pathway leads you down to a delightful garden space.

Here, a combination of patio and artificial lawn creates a low-maintenance yet inviting area, partially bordered by a traditional Cornish stone hedge and enjoying pleasant views over neighbouring fields. A useful shed adds further practicality.

The outdoor space continues to the side, where the patio extends—complete with the added luxury of an outdoor shower, perfect after beach days or countryside walks.

To the opposite side, a further garden area is beautifully planted, offering additional colour and interest, along with gated access to the street.
