Brass Thill Way, Greencroft, Stanley, DH9

Asking Price £225,000

For sale is this modern four-bedroom detached home, ideally situated in the popular Greencroft area of Stanley. Occupying a generous plot, the property offers a practical family layout, excellent outdoor space and useful off-street parking.

The house is approached via an open front lawn and driveway, leading to an attached garage providing secure parking, storage and additional versatility. To the rear is a particularly good-sized, enclosed garden, mainly laid to lawn with paved paths and a patio area directly adjoining the house. This attractive outdoor space is ideal for children, pets, entertaining or simply enjoying the garden during warmer months.

Internally, the accommodation provides a well-balanced layout with a spacious main reception room and separate fitted kitchen, creating clearly defined living and dining areas. There are four bedrooms, together with two bathrooms, offering plenty of flexibility for a growing family, home working or accommodating guests.

The location is well suited to everyday family life, with Stanley town centre within a short drive, providing a range of supermarkets, shops and essential services. Nearby green spaces, including Annfield Plain Park and Greencroft Nature Reserve, offer opportunities for walking, recreation and enjoying the surrounding countryside.

A selection of primary and secondary schools can be found within convenient driving distance, while nearby bus services provide connections towards Stanley, Durham, Consett and Newcastle.

For rail commuters, Chester-le-Street station is approximately 20–25 minutes by car, offering regular services to Newcastle and Durham, with onward connections to London, Edinburgh and other major destinations.

Overall, this well-positioned detached home offers generous accommodation, a substantial rear garden, driveway and garage, making it an excellent choice for modern family living.
