Beautifully presented, well-proportioned and spread across three floors, this is a family home that really delivers. There's space to grow and room to breathe, with schools, amenities and green spaces right on hand.

First impressions count, and this one doesn't disappoint. The welcoming hallway, with its handy cloaks cupboard and downstairs WC, opens into a bright, open-plan living room. Large windows flood the room with light, and French doors open to the outside. The space flows straight into the kitchen and dining area, the sociable heart of the home, made for family dinners and weekends with friends.

On the middle floor, the generous principal bedroom is your own retreat, with built-in wardrobes and a private en-suite shower room. Alongside it, a versatile double bedroom gives you options. It could be a nursery, snug, home office or teenage hideaway. You decide.

On the top floor are two more double bedrooms, a single bedroom and the family bathroom. With three WCs in total, there's no more queuing in the morning.

Outside, the garden is ready for summer evenings, entertaining and children's play. Then there's the real showstopper: a garden room, created by partially converting the garage. It could be a home office, gym, hobby room or playroom. Whatever your lifestyle, this space works for you. EPC rating D. Council tax band C.
