£165,000

A well-presented four-bedroom terraced home in the heart of Consett, offering spacious and versatile accommodation alongside a low-maintenance outdoor space.

The property features two reception rooms, providing flexible living and dining areas. There are four bedrooms, including a spacious loft bedroom offering excellent versatility as a principal bedroom or guest room. The remaining bedrooms are well proportioned and suitable for family living or home working. A generous family bathroom completes the accommodation, featuring a practical walk-in shower area.

Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed courtyard-style rear garden, finished with a combination of paving and resin surfaces, attractive stone boundary walls and useful storage. This tidy, low-maintenance space is ideal for outdoor seating, entertaining, barbecues or container planting.

Conveniently located in central Consett, the property is within easy reach of the town centre, including its shops, supermarkets, cafés and everyday amenities. A range of primary and secondary schools are also available within a short drive, making the location suitable for families.

Excellent transport links are available, with regular bus services to Newcastle, Durham and Stanley. Road connections via the A692 and A691 also provide access to the wider region and the A1(M), making the property convenient for commuters.

The property is currently in Council Tax Band A, offering an additional benefit for buyers mindful of household costs.

An excellent opportunity to purchase a spacious and versatile four-bedroom home in a convenient central location, ideally suited to families, first-time buyers and those looking for a well-located home with plenty of living space.
