

Fairhurst Street, Leigh

£115,000

Council Tax:

Tenure: Leasehold

On the market is this superb and idyllically placed two-bedroom terraced house, presenting an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, investors or families. The property stands in good condition, radiating a wholesome and inviting atmosphere.

The ground floor comprises a warm and cosy reception room, bathed in generous daylight with the added charm of a fireplace, generating real homely essence. The modern kitchen boasts of ample space, perfect for culinary endeavours.

Continue upwards to discover two delightful bedrooms that serve as private retreats. The accommodation is completed with a well-appointed bathroom, ensuring all essential comforts are met.

- Council tax band A
- Easy access to public transport
- Friendly neighbourhood setting
- Two bed house

