I am delighted to bring to the market a stylish, semi-detached house, presently available for let. Residing in a desirable locality with access to public transport links, local amenities, nearby parks, plus walking and cycling routes, this property offers a simplistic yet abundant lifestyle.

The house is in good condition and boasts an impressive two-bedroom setup. The first bedroom is a generous double; spacious and airy with a soothing atmosphere that allows for comfort and relaxation. The second is a cozy single room, ideal for customization according to one's preferences.

The property is equipped with a commodious reception room that reflects an alluring ambience. High-ceilinged, fitted with large windows that draw in an abundance of natural light, and outfitted with wood floors that give an enhanced aesthetic appeal, this area provides a unique space for either

- Private garden with direct access
- Excellent public transport links
- Airy reception room with large windows
- Close to parks and amenities
- Wood floors for modern appeal
- Energy efficient (EPC rating 'A')
