2A High Road, Broxbourne, EN10 7HY

Offers In Excess Of £230,000

This redecorated two-bedroom split-level maisonette is offered for sale in the popular town of Broxbourne. Ideally suited to first time buyers and investors, the property provides a practical layout arranged over two levels, with one large reception room, a separate kitchen and Shower room.

The master bedroom is a double, offering comfortable proportions, while the bathroom includes built-in storage and a heated towel rail. A balcony extends the living space outdoors, and a single garage provides valuable secure parking or additional storage. The property holds an EPC rating of D and falls within Council Tax Band B.

Situated in a sought-after location in Broxbourne, the maisonette benefits from convenient access to local amenities along the High Road, including shops, cafés, and everyday services. Nearby parks and green spaces offer opportunities for walking and recreation.

Broxbourne Station is within easy reach, providing regular rail services to London Liverpool Street and Stratford, making the property suitable for commuting into the City. Journey times to central London are typically around 30–35 minutes. Road links are also strong, with the A10 and connections to the M25 accessible by car.

There are several nearby schools in the area, appealing to purchasers seeking access to local education options. Public transport links, local amenities, nearby parks and schools all contribute to the practicality and appeal of this two-bedroom maisonette for those looking to buy in Broxbourne.
