St. Ann's Road, London, N15

Asking Price £700,000

Occupying an ideal position on St Ann's Road, this exceptional three bedroom period home offers over 100 sqm of beautifully presented accommodation, seamlessly blending original character with modern practicality. Rich in period charm, the property retains wooden sash windows to both the front and rear, original wooden floorboards, elegant ceiling centrepieces in the living room and a wealth of carefully preserved original features. The welcoming through lounge and dining room creates a wonderful space for both family life and entertaining, centred around a cosy wood burner stove in the living room.

The upper floors offer two well sized bedrooms, with the converted loft room currently serving as a home office. The main bedroom benefits from a walk-in wardrobe and integrated storage cupboards, while the family bathroom features a stunning freestanding period style bath, complemented by a separate shower room on the first floor, offering added convenience for busy households.

Outside, the private rear garden has a combination of lawn and decking, mature plum and cherry trees and useful storage shed complete this attractive outdoor space. Ideally situated, the property is approximately a 12 minute walk from Seven Sisters Underground and Overground stations, providing swift Victoria Line, Overground and Stansted Express services, with Oxford Circus reachable in around 15 minutes and King's Cross in approximately 10 minutes. Residents are also perfectly placed to enjoy the open green spaces of Chestnuts Park, Woodberry Wetlands, Downhills Park and Lordship Recreation Ground, all within easy walking distance, as well as the vibrant cafes, independent shops and restaurants that make this increasingly sought after North London neighbourhood.
