Situated on a residential street close to the green open spaces of Bruce Castle Park, this freehold house on Argyle Road, N17 offers an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to take on a project and create a home of their own.

The property extends to approximately 106.28 sqm (1,144 sq ft) and is in need of modernisation throughout, providing plenty of scope for improvement. It would particularly suit first time buyers who are keen to put their own stamp on a property, as well as investors or anyone looking to add value through refurbishment.

Transport links are also within easy reach. Bruce Grove railway station provides direct services into London Liverpool Street, and Tottenham Hale station (Victoria Line and National Rail) is also nearby, offering quick connections across London and towards Stansted Airport.

Overall, this is a great opportunity to purchase a well proportioned freehold home in a convenient North London location, with plenty of potential for those looking to modernise and make it their own.
