DESCRIPTION

TWO BED COTTAGE WITH DETACHED ONE BEDROOM ANNEXE

Hunters are delighted to offer this exceptional Grade II listed cottage with detached self-contained annexe, set in the highly sought-after village of Snainton. Offering flexible accommodation ideal for multi-generational living, dependent relatives, guests, or those working from home, this is a rare rental opportunity combining character, space and countryside views.

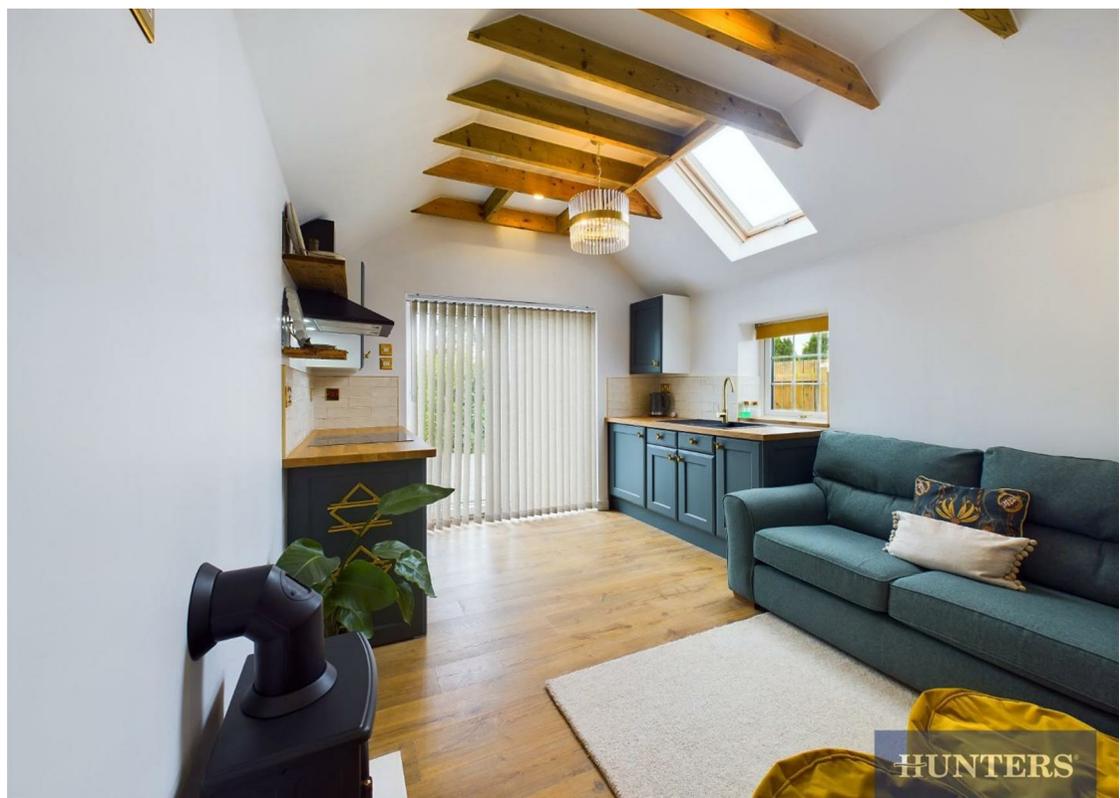

Believed to date back to the 1700s and once forming part of the old courthouse and jail, the main cottage is rich in period features. The bespoke kitchen includes cottage-style cabinetry and a dedicated coffee bar, flowing into a spacious lounge with exposed beams, timber flooring, feature stone wall and working antique fireplace. Upstairs offers a double bedroom with decorative panelling, a further single bedroom and a beautifully renovated bathroom with roll-top bath. A brick outbuilding to the rear provides a practical laundry and boot room.

Accessed via a shared track, the detached annexe is a stunning barn conversion built from locally quarried stone and enjoying panoramic views across the Derwent Valley. The open-plan layout includes a fully fitted kitchen, bright living space, luxury double bedroom and contemporary bathroom. With exposed beams, skylights and modern heating, it offers the perfect private retreat — ideal as independent accommodation or a peaceful home office space away from the main house.

Externally, the property benefits from a raised lawned garden bordered by natural paddock land, along with a gravelled firepit and BBQ area with outdoor power. There is ample off-road parking for two to three vehicles.

Situated on the edge of the North York Moors National Park, Snainton offers access to scenic walking and cycling routes including Dalby Forest, alongside traditional village amenities including pubs, a butcher, fish and chip shop and riding school.
