DESCRIPTION

Hunters are delighted to present this spacious and well-appointed ground floor apartment, occupying a prime position along Scarborough's iconic Esplanade and enjoying attractive sea views from the front.

The property offers well-balanced accommodation throughout, briefly comprising a generous living room filled with natural light, perfectly positioned to make the most of the coastal outlook. There is a fitted kitchen, two well-proportioned bedrooms and two bathrooms.

Externally, the apartment benefits from its own private outdoor space, offering a great spot for relaxing or entertaining, along with a substantial double garage with electric door, providing secure parking and excellent additional storage – a rare feature in this location.
