Summary

A magnificent Grade II listed cottage overlooking the village green in Micklethwaite, with beautifully kept gardens, and garage in a superb village. Forming part of a former Manor House the cottage seamlessly blends abundant character with contemporary styling.

The wonderful home which should be viewed to be fully appreciated comprises; entrance into the modern comprehensively equipped dining kitchen, a superb lounge with feature fireplace, and study/second sitting room with garden access to the ground floor. To the first floor are three excellent bedrooms and a modern house bathroom. Externally there are impressive mature gardens to the rear, which enjoy a lovely sunny outlook, and views over the surrounding agricultural land.

Micklethwaite village is a popular residential location and offers convenient access for the commuter to rail links for Leeds, Bradford and Skipton, Bingley town centre, local primary, secondary schools and local amenities. The Leeds Liverpool canal with the famous five rise locks offer great countryside walking and cycling
