West Morton

Keighley, BD20 5UP

£675,000

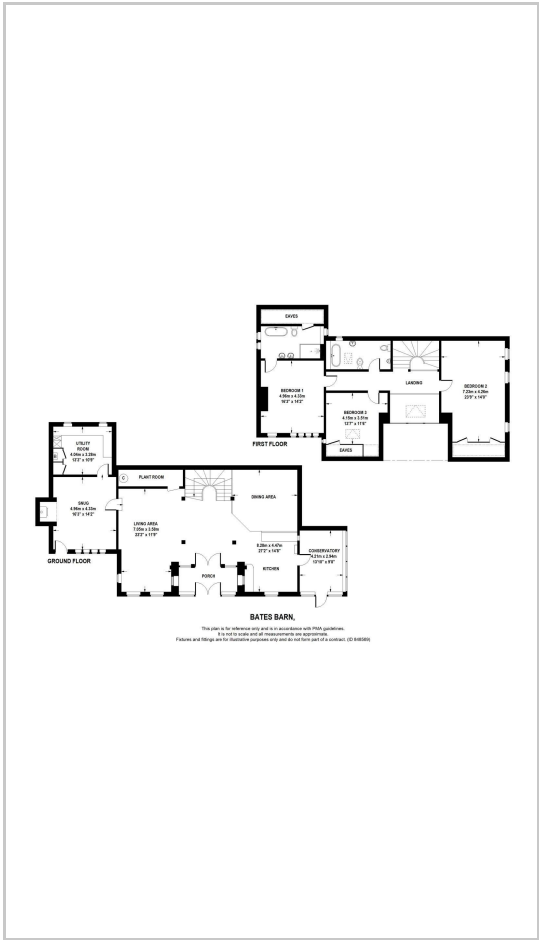

Bates Barn offers deceptively spacious living accommodation with excellent outside, space set in the semi rural location of West Morton. Accessed by private gated driveway leading to the extensive outdoor space with double garage, Bates Barn enjoys superb views across the Aire Valley plus a great deal of privacy. The property has undergone some recent upgrades and renovations that must be seen to fully appreciate. The property itself offers versatile living accommodation with the potential to create further bedroom space or add a staircase to the cottage side of the building to create a self contained annex/holiday home. Further benefits include 2.5kwph owned solar panels, an EPC rating C, and alarm system throughout. The position of the property offers an easy commute to Bingley town centre with good road and rail links for Leeds, Bradford and Keighley nearby. East Morton village is within close proximity with local village pub, community shop, primary school, village hall, playing fields and countryside walks. Viewing is essential to appreciate to the full.
