

Wood View

Cullingworth, Bradford, BD13 5AJ

Asking Price £350,000

An exceptional stone built end of terrace home providing superb family accommodation of significant quality in a very convenient location close to nearby Cullingworth village centre, its amenities, primary and secondary school and transport connections.

Tastefully appointed and superbly maintained, this mature five bedroom home, offers an excellent opportunity for a variety of potential purchasers to acquire an impressive property. Offering a flexible ground floor, and having its well laid out accommodation planned across three floors, plus the addition of a superb lower ground floor basement which has a separate entrance (which would provide an excellent space for a dependent relative) and utility, the most attractive substantial home can only be fully appreciated, upon an internal inspection.

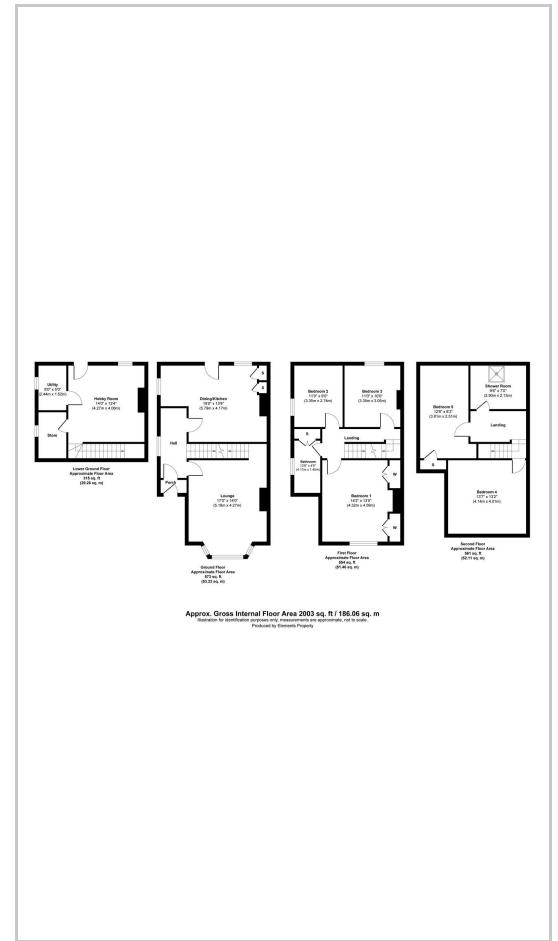

Comprising: entrance into entrance porch and hall with feature stained glass windows, lounge with impressive bay window and open fire, and dining kitchen with modern wall and base units with work surfaces over and multi fuel stove completing the ground floor. To the first floor are three double bedrooms and house bathroom, while to the second floor are two further double bedrooms and additional shower room facilities. Externally are beautiful gardens to the front (there is a right of access across the front garden) gardens to the rear, off street parking and detached garage.
