* READY TO VIEW NOW CALL US TO BOOK AN APPOINTMENT * A detached four-bedroom property set within a wonderful 1.8-acre plot, surrounded by glorious Cumbrian countryside, with approximately 90 metres of river frontage onto the River Winster, together with fishing and shooting rights.

The house has a charming approach, situated at the end of a winding country lane and accessed via a long, tree-lined gravel driveway. On arrival at Dob Coppice, you immediately gain a sense of splendid isolation, set within an expansive, wide valley with far-reaching views towards the Lakeland mountains in the distance.

Nestled on the fringes of the picturesque village of Witherslack, the property occupies a wonderful position on the southern fringes of the Lyth Valley and Lake District National Park. Despite its rural setting, the South Lakes towns of Grange-over-Sands, Kendal and Ulverston are all within easy reach.

The 189 sqm house provides accommodation arranged over three floors. To the ground floor there is a living room, snug, conservatory, kitchen/diner, utility room and cloakroom. To the first floor, there are three bedrooms, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en-suite, together with a family bathroom. Finally, on the second floor, there is a further bedroom within the attic space, with some restricted headroom.

Outside, there is a substantial outbuilding which is sure to keep even the keenest of hobbyists happy, providing garage space for up to five cars, a workshop and an office.

The house has been let for a number of years and, while comfortably habitable, the new owners will find potential for internal updating and possible remodelling, allowing them to put their own stamp on this unique property. The house benefits from oil-fired central heating, has solar panels, and an air source heat pump.

The property is being offered with no onward chain .
