The first thing you notice as you step into the living room is the wonderful outlook over the rear garden provided by the large sliding doors that lead out to a raised patio. A further window helps to flood the space with natural light and there is room in here for a sofa, chairs, and should you choose, a dining table to one end.

Passage Way

The passage links the garage and utility with the house, protecting you from the elements whilst moving from car to house. There are double, part glazed doors at either end, providing access to the rear garden and directly into the kitchen.

Gardens

The mature gardens wrap round the bungalow to three sides, and they are beautifully planted with a range of mature shrubs, plants and trees, all arranged around immaculate lawns. A slate wall marks the boundary of the front garden from the country lane and tall trees and shrubs screen the house well providing plenty of privacy. Moving to the rear, there is a raised patio which is accessed from the sliding doors to the living room, and it offers an elevated view over the lawn and planting. The rear boundary is screened with mature shrubs and planting. There is also a timber shed located to the side of the house.
