This gorgeous semi-detached bungalow is for sale in a peaceful part of Leeds, set on a generous plot with no through traffic and backing onto Cabbage Hill, ideal for couples or downsizers seeking a calm setting with great transport links and green space nearby.

Inside, an open-plan layout connects the L-shaped kitchen and reception room, creating a sociable main living area. The kitchen offers grey wall and base units, an integrated freezer and range-style oven, and flows neatly into the living room. The living room features a media wall, cosy electric fire, plush carpet and access to a boarded loft room, providing useful additional storage or hobby space accessible via pull-down ladder.

Bi-fold doors lead from the living area into a centrally heated conservatory, used as a dining space with pleasant views and direct access to the beautiful low-maintenance garden. The double bedroom includes a bay window with blinds, deep space for wardrobes, a ceiling fan and plush carpet. The bathroom has a bath with over-shower, white vanity sink, white WC, heated towel rail and frosted window, giving a clean, fresh finish. The property is in Council Tax band B.

The locality offers nearby schools, local amenities and parks, along with the convenience of the nearby ring road for routes around Leeds and towards Bradford and the wider West Yorkshire area. Leeds city centre is accessible by bus and car, with frequent services running to the main shopping, business and leisure districts, and onward rail connections from Leeds Station to destinations such as York, Manchester and London. Overall, this ready-to-move-into bungalow combines a peaceful setting with practical living space and good local facilities.
