Positioned in the heart of Pudsey, this spacious Victorian stone terraced home offers four bedrooms arranged over multiple floors, combining generous accommodation with character features, off-street parking and excellent access to a wide range of local amenities, while also presenting excellent potential for a buyer to create their own dream home.

A period entrance hall with a grand staircase sets the tone on arrival, immediately highlighting the home's character and proportions, while also providing access down to the cellar. The bay-fronted reception room features high ceilings and attractive period touches, including a marble-effect electric fire, creating a welcoming main living space. To the rear, the open-plan kitchen diner is both practical and sociable in design, fitted with a range of wall and base units, a gas hob, integrated fridge and ample space for dining, with a breakfast bar island offering additional workspace and a great spot for informal meals.

The cellar has been partially converted and tanked, offering two large rooms along with a plumbed utility and W/C. This space provides excellent scope for further development into additional accommodation if desired, and also benefits from direct access out to the rear garden.

To the first floor, the front-facing principal bedroom is a particularly generous double, complete with fitted wardrobes and an impressive footprint. A further double bedroom sits to the rear, also benefitting from fitted wardrobes and a feature period fireplace. The main bathroom is a notably large, tiled suite with a bath and shower attachment, offering scope to reconfigure if a separate shower is desired. In addition, a separate first-floor shower room is positioned next to the largest bedroom, clearly offering potential to be reconfigured into an en-suite if preferred.

The top floor offers two additional double bedrooms, both loft-style in design and enhanced by Velux skylights, creating bright and airy spaces with plenty of natural light, ideal for a range of uses.

Externally, the rear garden is currently used as off-street parking for two vehicles, accessed from the rear, which is incredibly valuable and rare for this style of home.

Pudsey town centre is just a short distance away, offering a vibrant mix of shops, cafés, bars and pubs, along with well-regarded local schools. The nearby Owlcotes Shopping Centre provides additional retail and supermarket options. For those commuting, New Pudsey railway station offers regular services towards Leeds and Bradford, alongside frequent local bus routes connecting to surrounding areas.

A fantastic opportunity to secure a spacious home in a central location, offering the perfect canvas to create something truly your own!

Please note: the property, being an older terraced house, includes bedrooms within the roof space. This accommodation may not comply with current Building Regulations, and prospective purchasers should satisfy themselves as to its suitability and compliance.
