Summary

Positioned on the fifth floor of a modern development with lift access, this bright and well-arranged two-bedroom apartment with a private roof terrace offers 643 sq. ft. of living space in a highly sought-after part of Stoke Newington.

The property opens into a welcoming hallway leading to a generous, dual aspect reception room with large windows that create a superb sense of light and space, comfortably accommodating both living and dining areas leading to a private roof terrace. A separate kitchen is fitted with contemporary units and integrated appliances, providing a stylish and practical setting for everyday cooking and entertaining.

The apartment features two bedrooms, including a well-proportioned principal bedroom and a second versatile room that can be used as a guest bedroom, nursery, or home office. A modern bathroom, finished in neutral tones, completes the layout.

This is an ideal home for first-time buyers, young professionals or those looking for a well-connected base in one of North London's most desirable neighbourhoods. Residents enjoy the convenience of secure entry and lift access, while the location places you within easy reach of the vibrant shops, cafés and restaurants of Stoke Newington Church Street and Kingsland Road, as well as the independent eateries and village-like atmosphere of Newington Green. The green open spaces of Clissold Park are also close by.

Transport links include Dalston Junction, Dalston Kingsland and Rectory Road stations, together with numerous local bus routes offering fast connections into the City and West End.
