Old Heybeck Lane

Tingley, Wakefield, WF3 1DW

Offers Over £450,000

Old Heybeck Lane, located in the Tingley area of Wakefield (WF3 1DW), is part of a historic setting featuring properties with roots dating back potentially as far as the 14th century. This remarkable bungalow sits in an excellent position on this semi-rural lane, offering a fantastic outlook to the front of the property over the surrounding fields and countryside. A fabulous garden provides well-kept lawns running to the side. Sure to appeal to a discerning buyer, the home is generously proportioned both inside and out, being positioned within manicured gardens and benefitting from fabulous verdant views to the front. The property features a bright conservatory, well-proportioned living and dining areas, a fitted kitchen, two double bedrooms with built-in storage, and an accessible wet room. This property is ideal for buyers seeking space, privacy, and potential to modernise to their own taste. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the potential and generous plot on offer. Externally, also to the front, there are two garages and ample space to park multiple vehicles. Situated in a tucked-away location, a high degree of privacy is afforded by gated access and mature boundary hedging. The property is ideally located for access into Leeds City Centre and further afield via the nearby M1 and M62. Perfect for buyers looking for a home within easy reach of Hill Top Primary School and Woodkirk Secondary Academy.
