Gretna is a vibrant and historic border town, well known for its welcoming atmosphere and excellent transport connections. The town centre offers a wide selection of amenities, including convenience stores, bakeries, butchers, hair salons, and a range of independent shops and eateries. Renowned for its romantic heritage as a famous wedding destination, Gretna also benefits from a strong sense of community and a variety of local events throughout the year. Road links are exceptional, with the A74(M) and A75 providing swift access across South West and Central Scotland, as well as into England. The stunning landscapes of the Lake District National Park are less than an hour's drive to the south, while nearby countryside and coastal walks offer plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoor right on the doorstep.

AML Disclosure

Agents are required by law to conduct Anti-Money Laundering checks on all those buying a property. Hunters charge £40 (including VAT) for an AML check per buyer. This is a non-refundable fee. The charges cover the cost of obtaining relevant data, any manual checks that are required, and ongoing monitoring. This fee is payable in advance prior to the issuing of a memorandum of sale on the property you are seeking to buy.

These particulars are intended to give a fair and reliable description of the property but no responsibility for any inaccuracy or error can be accepted and do not constitute an offer or contract. We have not tested any services or appliances (including central heating if fitted) referred to in these particulars and the purchasers are advised to satisfy themselves as to the working order and condition. If a property is unoccupied at any time there may be reconnection charges for any switched off/disconnected or drained services or appliances - All measurements are approximate. If you are thinking of selling your home or just curious to discover the value of your property, Hunters would be pleased to provide free, no obligation sales and marketing advice. Even if your home is outside the area covered by our local offices we can arrange a Market Appraisal through our national network of Hunters estate agents.
