Eastriggs is a well-served and conveniently located village in Dumfries and Galloway, offering a strong range of everyday amenities alongside excellent transport connections. Within the village itself are local shops, a pre-school playgroup, primary school with nursery provision, a dispensing chemist, garden centre, vehicle servicing and repair facilities, beauty and hair salons, a bar and restaurant, and a selection of takeaways, all contributing to the village's practical day-to-day appeal. Eastriggs is also home to the popular Devils Porridge Museum, a well-regarded visitor attraction celebrating the area's fascinating First World War history. The village benefits from regular bus services connecting Dumfries, Annan, Gretna and Carlisle, while the nearby A74(M), A75 and M6 provide excellent road links, making the area highly accessible for commuters and those travelling further afield.
