Hart Street, Bradford, West Yorkshire, BD7 3HH

This terraced house, offered for sale, is located on Hart Street in Bradford, BD7. The property features two double bedrooms and two bathrooms, providing practical living space suitable for first time buyers, investors, or families. The house also benefits from a cellar, offering additional storage options.

The property includes one reception room and a kitchen, facilitating comfortable everyday living. Situated in a neighbourhood with convenient access to public transport, Hart Street is a short distance from Bradford Interchange station. This provides regular train services to Leeds, with journey times of approximately 20 minutes, and onward connections to Manchester and beyond. Various bus routes also operate in the area, supporting direct commutes across Bradford and the surrounding towns.

The location offers good access to local amenities. Hart Street is within walking distance of Bradford's city centre, where residents can take advantage of shopping facilities, independent cafés, and restaurants. The area includes several popular schools, such as Dixons City Academy and St Joseph's Catholic College, making it a suitable choice for families.

Nearby green spaces such as Horton Park provide opportunities for outdoor recreation, while the thriving Lister Park is a short drive away. These parks are well-regarded for their open areas, playgrounds, and community events.

Overall, this two-bedroom terraced house in Bradford offers a balanced combination of local amenities, access to reputable schools, and practical travel links for both work and leisure.
