Hunters are thrilled to present this highly appealing detached house on the market for sale. Meticulously maintained, this residence is neutrally decorated, showing a tasteful presence that will suit any prospective homeowners' style.

The house boasts ample living space, located over three floors, with a total of four bedrooms, three bathrooms, a kitchen diner, and a reception room to be utilized as per your preference. The kitchen is inviting, providing the ideal space for culinary enthusiasts to whip up their favourite dishes.

The bedrooms are well-proportioned, allowing for a comfortable living arrangement, and the bathrooms are consummately planned for family use. The reception room furthers the charm of the house, with double doors to kitchen diner, offering an airy, accommodating space for family gathering or entertaining guests.

The property benefits from off-street parking, providing a sense of security and convenience for vehicle owners. Located within easy access to the city centre, it offers excellent public transport links and easy access to local amenities. Schools of a high calibre are also within close proximity, making this perfect for a family-oriented living.

On the whole, this four-bedroom detached house is an extraordinary find on the market, offering potential buyers a comfortable, convenient, and qualitative home.
