DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to purchase a stylish former coach house, within earshot of the English Channel. Retaining some stunning and most unusual period features, this semi detached property is within just moments of the beach. The majority of the accommodation is set out to the first floor and includes a double aspect sitting room, 3 bedrooms, bathroom, shower room and a separate cloakroom.

The ground floor has a coach house theme and still retains the original brick flooring and heavy stable divider. Today the accommodation has a generous dining room, kitchen and garage, quite rare for Sandgate.

Sandgate has an array of shops offering antiques, collectable and gifts. The village has a fascinating history along with over one hundred and twenty Grade II Listed properties together with ancient monuments such as Sandgate Castle and Martello Towers.

This much sought after seaside village offers some splendid coastal walks. The Cinque Port town of Hythe with its range of amenities is approximately 2 miles to the east. There is a variety of sports available along the coast including rowing and sailing and a choice of golf courses in the immediate vicinity.
