HUNTERS®
HERE TO GET you THERE

Parson Street, , Bristol, BS3 5PU

Hunters are pleased to offer for sale this well proportioned three bedroom/ two reception detached bungalow in Bedminster. Being offered to the market for the first time in over 50 years its sure to have a broad appeal given its substantial plot and unique layout.

Internally the property offers a light and airy living room thanks to the bay window, the open plan kitchen/ dining room sits overlooking the rear garden and opens to the patio. There are three bedrooms, all of which will fit double beds, the master offers a bay window whilst the third is currently being utilised as a sitting room, thanks to its french doors to the rear garden. The three piece bathroom and airing cupboard finish off the internal accommodation.

Outside the bungalow sits on a substantial corner plot, a real rarity for the area. Currently there are two outside stores, and large patio area with the remainder being laid with lawn. There is a tucked away seating area and ample space for off street parking for several vehicles to the side behind gates.

The property is offered with a complete chain and offers a rare opportunity to secure a unique property on a substantial corner plot, and could possible be extended or developed further (subject to the necessary permissions), therefore please call to arrange an internal viewing appointment.

Parson Street sits on the outskirts of Bedminster, an area popular among families looking for properties close access links and local schools (Parson St School sits just 0.1 miles away) Parson Street station is just 0.1 mile away whilst bus links are dotted all along West Street, just a 0.2 mile walk away.
