The Tannery, Lawrence St, York, YO10 3WF

DESCRIPTION

Situated within a secure gated development just moments from York city centre, this spacious second-floor apartment offers characterful accommodation in an exceptionally convenient location. Set within the popular Tannery development, the property combines generous room sizes with attractive period-style features and is ideal for first-time buyers, investors or those seeking a city base.

The accommodation includes an entrance hallway leading to a superb open-plan living kitchen dining space, enjoying excellent natural light from multiple windows and offering ample room for both relaxing and entertaining. The fitted kitchen features a range of wall and base units, integrated cooking appliances and space for additional appliances.

The impressive double bedroom provides generous proportions, a useful dressing area and further built-in storage. The bathroom is fitted with a modern white suite with shower over bath.

Externally, the development benefits from secure gated access, lift access to all floors and communal bike storage. The property is ideally placed for easy access to York city centre, the University of York, local shops and a wide range of nearby amenities.
