Fulford Chase, Fulford, York, YO10 4QP

DESCRIPTION

Standing proudly on Fulford Road, this striking period property has a rich history. Originally known as Westfield House, it later became 'The Gimcrack' pub in 1936, before its transformation in 2002 into luxurious apartment-style residences. Now part of the exclusive gated development of Fulford Chase, this elegant three-bedroom apartment offers a perfect blend of historic charm and modern refinement.

Positioned in the highly sought-after area of Fulford, just two miles south of York city centre, Fulford Chase is ideal for commuters and families alike. Excellent transport links via the A64 provide convenient access to surrounding areas, while Fulford itself offers a fantastic selection of schools and shops. Its leafy surroundings and strong community feel make it a highly desirable place to call home.

Located on the first floor of this distinguished period conversion, the apartment welcomes with a spacious entrance hall leading into a stylish open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area. The beautifully designed kitchen boasts high-quality fitted units, integrated appliances, and elegant granite worktops. The master bedroom benefits from bespoke fitted wardrobes and a private en suite shower room, while two additional double bedrooms provide ample space, complemented by a contemporary family bathroom.

Through the development's electric gates, residents have ample parking for both residents and visitors, alongside a beautifully landscaped communal garden area and secure bike store.

Offered with no onward chain, this exceptional home is a rare opportunity for luxury living in a distinguished setting.
