Situated on the ever-popular Wellington Street, just off Heslington Road and tucked behind the Barbican Centre, this two-bedroom terraced house presents an excellent opportunity for first-time buyers, investors or anyone seeking a well-located home with clear scope to modernise. The position places you within easy walking distance of York city centre, the University of York, the amenities of Heslington Road and the major shops at Foss Islands — including supermarkets and everyday essentials. Offered with no onward chain, the purchase process is refreshingly straightforward.

Inside, the property features a bright living room with a large front window and fireplace, leading through to a spacious rear kitchen with plenty of potential for redesign. Beyond the kitchen is the main three-piece bathroom and the private, low-maintenance courtyard garden complete with a timber shed.

Upstairs are two well-proportioned double bedrooms along with a WC and basin. There is also strong potential to extend into the loft space (subject to planning permission), offering the chance to increase living space and add value.

With its convenient location, access to local amenities and strong transport links, this characterful home offers both lifestyle appeal and consistent rental demand.
