College Court, Dringhouses, York, York

£900,000

Set within an exclusive gated development in one of York's most sought-after locations, this beautifully presented four-bedroom period townhouse offers over 2,400 sq ft of elegant, versatile living across three spacious floors.

Once a prominent 19th-century residence and later used as RAF quarters during WWII, Ashfield House retains its rich heritage through award-winning restoration. Ideally located just moments from the Knavesmire and York Racecourse, with excellent amenities, top-rated schools, and superb transport links including the A64 and York railway station, it offers the perfect blend of character and convenience.

A charming entrance porch leads into a light-filled living room with a striking feature fireplace and glazed patio doors. The inner hallway provides access to a guest W.C. and an impressive staircase rising to the upper floors. At the rear, a stylish kitchen-diner features shaker-style units, a central island with wine storage, a Belfast sink, and space for freestanding appliances including a range-style cooker and American-style fridge freezer. A boot room with access to Tadcaster Road completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, the first floor hosts two generous double bedrooms, including a principal suite with walk-in wardrobe and luxurious four-piece en suite, plus a second en suite bedroom ideal for guests or older children. The top floor offers two further double bedrooms and a beautifully appointed family bathroom.

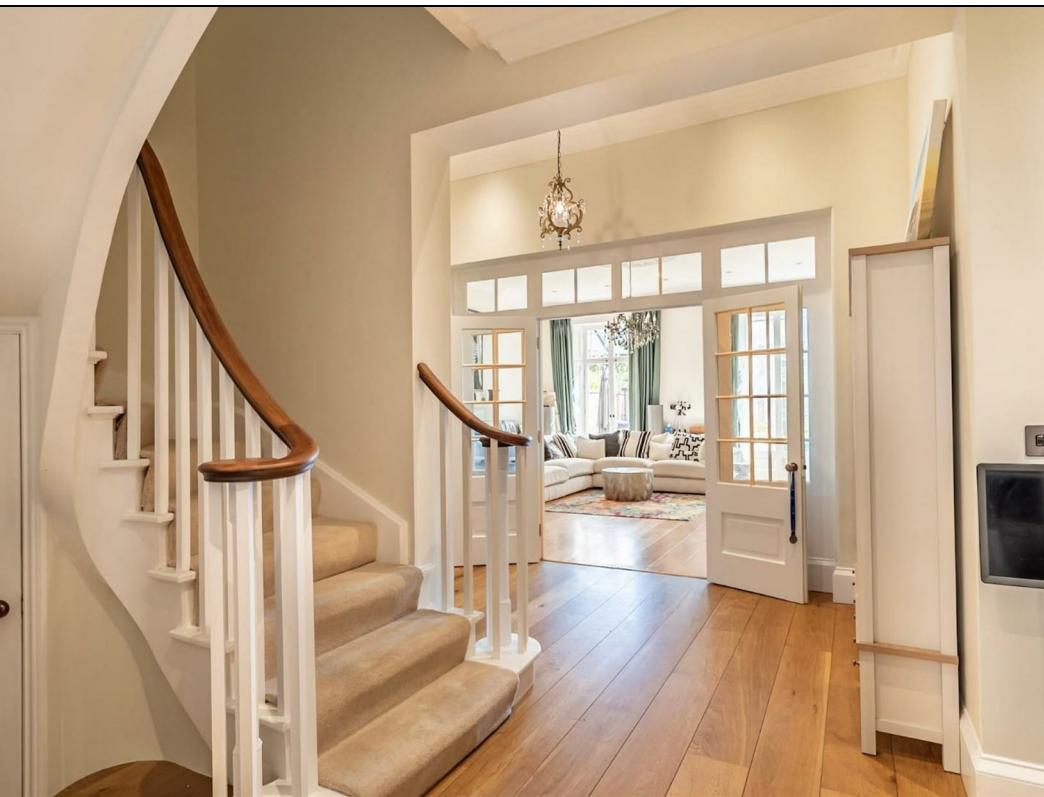

Outside, the property enjoys a lawned rear garden with private patio, a double garage, and allocated parking—all within a secure, well-maintained gated setting.
